

The Network of Buddhist Organisations (UK) & The Institute of Oriental Philosophy-UK

Invite you to a

Conference

At Taplow Court, Taplow, Nr Maidenhead, Berkshire

The British Buddhist Landscape – Transplantation and Growth

Fri 27 June . Sat 28 June . Sun 29 June 2008

5.30pm-9.30pm 9.30am-6.00/9.30pm 10.00am-2.00pm

Suitable for – Anyone who has an interest (at any level) in Buddhism, or religion, in the UK.

Topics include – The History & Development of Buddhism in the UK, Asian Buddhist Groups in the UK, Teaching Buddhism in schools, universities and on the Internet, Buddhism & Psychotherapy, and Engaging with Society.

Speakers include – Ugyen Sangharakshita, Stephen Batchelor, Dr John Peacock, Dr Helen Waterhouse, Ajahn Laow, Peggy Morgan, Colin Ash, Ven. Sumana, Tony Kemmer, Phil Henry, Keith Munnings, Sharon Smith, Yann Lovelock, Dr Robert Bluck, Munisha & others to be confirmed.

Artists & performers – Are welcome to exhibit work, or perform, on a voluntary basis during the conference (please contact IOP-UK for further details).

Conference dinner – Optional Saturday evening buffet & performances.

Costs – Whole conference only £65, concessions £45 – includes vegetarian meals and refreshments. NB Conference dinner an extra £15 for all. Part-conference attendance possible. Limited on-site accommodation. (See NBO website Conference Info for rates & local B&Bs or campsite).

Venue – Taplow Court is a beautiful Victorian mansion in Taplow village, set in 85 acres of grounds and overlooking the River Thames, between Slough and Maidenhead.

Travel – Train to Taplow station on Fri & Sat from Paddington or Reading. Train to Burnham station on Sunday as Taplow closed. Road M4 or M40.

For a booking form & info see
For further details contact

www.nbo.org.uk/conference.html

Jamie Cresswell, IOP-UK

Tel: 01628-591213

Email: jc@iopec.org

We look forward to meeting you!