

Buddhists and Schools: a day conference for Buddhists who work with schools or wish to Saturday, 26th March 2011, 10am-4pm

Travel and other information

Venue

Birmingham Buddhist Centre
11 Park Road, Moseley
Birmingham, B13 8AB

www.birminghambuddhistcentre.org.uk

Telephone on the day only: 0121 449 5279

Bookings and enquiries

Please contact Munisha at Clear Vision:

munisha@clear-vision.org

0161 839 9579

Travel

<http://www.birminghambuddhistcentre.org.uk/contact.html>

Nearest station is Birmingham New Street.

From here take a taxi (15 mins) or walk through the Bullring to the street called Digbeth, to catch the no. 50 bus, destination King's Heath (very frequent; journey 20 mins). Ask for the stop on Alcester Road just before Moseley Village. Single fare is £1.80. No change given.

Download a map

<http://maps.google.co.uk/maps?hl=en&f=q&q=11+Park+Road++B13+8AB&btnG=Search+Maps>

Disabled access

There is a ramp up to the front door, with adjacent disabled parking. All the rooms we are using, except the library, are wheelchair accessible and there is a disabled-accessible toilet. Please ask if you need disabled parking reserved, or further information.

Lunch

Please bring your own vegetarian/vegan lunch. Refreshments provided. Food will be offered for Theravadin monastics who have booked.

Suggested donation £5-£15

Part of Celebrating RE month, this event is organised by the Clear Vision Trust and hosted by Birmingham Buddhist Centre, in association with the Network of Buddhist Organisations UK.

www.clear-vision.org

www.birminghambuddhistcentre.org.uk

www.nbo.org.uk

www.celebratingre.org