Five Marks of Chaplaincy

Agreed by the Free Churches Group (2009) and the MFGHC (2011)

- To maintain personal spirituality and faith / belief through support from and contribution to their local congregation / faith or belief community.

- To maintain their positions as an ordained / authorised minister / pastor / membership of their denomination / faith / belief community and to provide a yearly statement acknowledging this.

- To work with those from all faith traditions and belief groups and none in a spirit of concord and support for the welfare of patients, relatives, staff and the institution.

- At no time to proselytize or in any other way attempt to coerce or convert patients, staff or relatives, but always to act with respect and courtesy.

- To continue Personal and Professional Development as a Chaplain, and submit an annual return detailing work undertaken that has directly enhanced the care of patients, relatives, staff and the institution.
Important Information for Faith & Belief Communities

- Faith or Belief Community Support

Health Care Chaplaincy is a challenging and rewarding expression of faith / belief in action and contributes to the health and wellbeing not only of individuals but of their community and the nation. To meet the pastoral, spiritual and religious needs of a diverse community of patients and staff we need a diverse Chaplaincy community.

If an individual from your community would like to explore this vocation, the following information may help in discerning if this course is for them:

1. Your community may have already adopted the Five Marks of Chaplaincy (see page 3). Is the prospective Chaplain/ Volunteer / Visitor willing to work with them?
2. If the individual does not hold the relevant DBS will the faith or belief community support that application by help with filling in form and paying the fee?
3. The individual will need a placement – up to 20 hours over about 8 weeks (see appendix 1 The Reflective Learning Log). Are you able to help arrange that placement?
4. Are you able to provide a ‘faith / belief community’ mentor, to support the course participant during the course?
5. The taught elements of the course are spread over two days. Is the faith/belief community willing to pay for travel to the course and to the work placement (if required)?
6. The costs of the course come from public funding, so there are no course fees. The course has no cost to participants.

Each Faith & Belief community is responsible for selecting suitable candidates. The maximum number of participants on the course is 20, and the minimum is 8.

- Prospective Chaplains / Chaplaincy Volunteers

You are encouraged to read the Course Handbook carefully before applying and are welcome to seek clarification about any concerns by contacting either of the course tutors.

An application for a place on the course will need to include the name and contact details of the person from your Faith or Belief Community supporting your application.

The course includes a work placement in a healthcare setting. There are a number of options as to how this is arranged:

- You may wish to arrange this yourself, through your own efforts and contacts;
- You may wish to seek support arranging this through your faith & belief community;
- You may request support identifying suitable locations from the course tutors.

Please contact us immediately should you find it necessary to withdraw from the course, so that we can offer the place to someone else.
Work Placements

The Work Placement will enable you to experience the work of chaplaincy as part of a chaplaincy team and explore issues of faith and belief in relation to healthcare chaplaincy.

You are expected to complete up to a maximum of 20 hours spread over a period of about 8 weeks.

During this time you will explore aspects of chaplaincy practice relating to the following:

- Healthcare provision
- Faith / belief-based teachings on caring for the sick and dying
- Beginning and end-of-life care and related faith / belief-based ethical and moral considerations

This experience will be recorded in the Reflective Learning Log.

During this period you will meet for with your faith / belief community mentor to reflect on practice and explore issues raised by the experience, and you can make contact with your course tutor:

- Keith Munnings (tel: 07931 532006)

Important Information for Work Placement Hosts

A placement in a hospital, or in another healthcare setting, is a central element to the course providing key hands-on learning experiences. We are very grateful to chaplaincy departments for supporting this course through offering the work placement opportunity. We appreciate the time and hard work involved by chaplaincy team members. We have no wish to burden busy chaplaincy teams with too much additional work.

The placement will enable participants to experience the work of chaplaincy, predominately through shadowing other chaplains; observing and reflecting upon the experience. The opportunity provides a taste of being part of a chaplaincy team and aims to enable exploration of issues of faith and belief in relation to healthcare chaplaincy.

The placement will enable participants to develop their personal and professional identity, share their learning with the chaplaincy team who will provide support from a designated Chaplain in the team.

Placement Dates:

- Birmingham course: placements preferably between Wednesday 12th February to Friday 27th March 2020
Reflective Practice

Reflective practice is the key to good professional practice!

Moon - reflective practice as "a set of abilities and skills, to indicate the taking of a critical stance, an orientation to problem solving or state of mind" (1999: 63).

Biggs - “reflection in a mirror is an exact replica of what is in front of it. Reflection in professional practice, however, gives back not what it is, but what might be, an improvement on the original" (1999: 6).

The process of Reflection can be seen in the example below:-

Gibbs Reflective Cycle (1988)

Why is this important in Chaplaincy?

‘Reflective practice is not only about reflecting on our chaplaincy work to inform how we engage with others in the future and to help us explore the theology, world view and values that underpin our approach. It also fundamentally helps us to develop our self-awareness and the understanding.’ (Kelly 2012)

Sometimes we are Novices in new situations, we need to try out ideas, discuss how we work and learn not only from our mistakes but from our successes. If we reflect on our actions we can learn something of ourselves, if we reflect with others we can learn more! Learning from others is crucial, because chaplaincy is about team work, not just the chaplaincy team but the multi-disciplinary team that care for the patients.

By reflecting on practice we are acting in a professional way, and should be able to identify our learning and developmental needs in this process.
Reflective Practice

From your experience / observations, and utilising the Reflective cycle:-

1. Note how the Chaplaincy team contributes to the provision of Health Care within the care setting.
2. Explore how your faith / belief, tradition and teachings affect the care of the sick.
3. Explore your own reaction to those who are dying and what your faith / belief tradition speaks into such situations.
4. Explore a moral / ethical situation noting any dissonance between that which was observed and the view of your faith / belief tradition.

These reflections will form the basis of some shared learning on the second day of the course and may contribute to your written assignment. Please remember to anonymize the narrative so that patient confidentiality is maintained.

Course assessment

The course assessment comprises two elements:

a) Reflective Learning Log that is completed during the placement. You will need to keep a daily reflective learning log during the placement. Select ONE or more ‘critical incidents’ from this log and write this up, including both narrative and reflection, for submission to your tutor.

b) Written Assignment (approx. 2500 words)

Assignment Title:

How have my thoughts of the Faith or Belief contribution to health changed in the light of my placement?

The assignment explores the faith/ belief contribution to chaplaincy and healthcare. This can be partly or fully drawn from your placement experience and presents an overview of the key learning for you.

Participants with prior experience of working within healthcare chaplaincy are encouraged to draw upon their own fresh personal experience and show how this has helped with their recent development as a chaplain.

Final submission dates for all assessment material, e-mailed to Keith Munnings (keith@eskola.co.uk):

- Birmingham course, assignment submission by Friday 1st May 2020
